

Diversity Mark Annual Summit

EDI 2.0 - from Action to Impact

Tuesday 8th October 2024

Titanic Belfast

9.00am – 4.00pm

Diversity Mark Annual Summit

EDI 2.0 - from Action to Impact

Diversity Mark proudly presents the Diversity Mark Annual Summit, uniting Northern Ireland's forward-thinking organisations committed to fostering inclusive workplaces. Sponsored by Allstate Northern Ireland, this transformative one-day event revolves around the theme 'EDI 2.0 - from Action to Impact.'

Set against the iconic backdrop of Titanic Belfast, on Tuesday 8th October 2024, this thought-provoking summit promises to inform, support and inspire over 300 business and diversity leaders.

Attendees will engage with expert keynote speakers, benefit from panel sessions offering global and local perspectives, and immerse themselves in educational breakout sessions. Delegates can anticipate gaining invaluable insights and a wealth of resources to drive diversity and inclusion within their organisations.

By harnessing these tools, attendees will be equipped to spearhead positive change and innovation in their workplaces.

By harnessing these tools, attendees will be equipped to spearhead positive change and innovation in their workplaces.

Diversity Mark

a part of WThe WIB Group

Diversity Mark Annual Summit

EDI 2.0 - from Action to Impact

Summit Agenda

- 09.00 Arrival refreshments & networking
- 09.45 Welcome from Carolyn Stewart, Summit host
- 09.55 Sponsor's Message - Dr Stephen McKeown
Vice-President and Managing Director, Allstate Northern Ireland
- 10.00 Minister for the Economy, Conor Murphy MLA
- 10.10 Keynote Speaker, Professor Tim Soutphommasane - EDI 2.0
Chief Diversity Officer and Professor, University of Oxford
- 11.10 Mid-morning refreshments break with networking
- 11.35 John Healy OBE Chair, Invest Northern Ireland
Building a Better Society: The Business Case for Inclusive Growth
- 11.50 Panel session facilitated by Judith Gillespie CBE
Co-Chair, Diversity Mark Assessment Panel
Transforming Talk into Tangible Change: EDI Strategies that Work
Caroline Van Der Feltz, HR Director, Danske Bank
John Healy, Chair, Invest Northern Ireland
Shauna McPeake, Director of People and Culture, Catalyst
Aisling Quinn, Director, NI Civil Service
- 12.30 Breakout session 1
Delegates can choose one session to attend before lunch and after, the same sessions will be repeated after lunch
Cultural Reflection and Inclusion: Embracing different cultures, including our own
Lata Sharma, writer, actress, singer, journalist, and a Belfast girl of Indian heritage
The Power of Community Engagement and Partnerships
Dr James Uhomobhi, Lecturer, Ulster University
The winning formula: The Impact of Employee Resource Groups and Champions
- 13.15 Lunch

Diversity Mark

a part of WThe WIB Group

Diversity Mark Annual Summit

EDI 2.0 - from Action to Impact

Conference Agenda

- 14.15 Breakout session 2
- Cultural Reflection and Inclusion: Embracing different cultures, including our own
Lata Sharma, writer, actress, singer, journalist, and a Belfast girl of Indian heritage
- The Power of Community Engagement and Partnerships
Dr James Uhomobhi, Lecturer, Ulster University
- The winning formula: The Impact of Employee Resource Groups and Champions
- 15.00 Panel session facilitated by Chloe Gillard
Diversity, Inclusion & Belonging Manager, Version 1
- From Strategy to Impact: Transforming Recruitment for Greater Inclusion
Laura Dowie, Director, Timely Careers
Lisa McIlvenna, Deputy Managing Director, Business in the Community NI
Mark McAlister, CEO, The Labour Relations Agency
- 15.30 Closing session
- The Power of Inclusion: My Journey from Refugee to Advocate
- 15.55 Close of conference by Christine White
Director, Diversity Mark

Diversity Mark
a part of WThe WiB Group

Supporting sponsors:

Gilbert-Ash

Belfast
City Council

LabourRelationsagency
improving employment relations

Supported by:

